

Gardening in a changing climate

Inventive ways to garden with less water

We may have had a wet winter but how can we use our water in the most efficient way in our gardens in the coming spring and summer months?

Saturday 6th October

10am - 3.30pm

Cost $10 per person

Includes lunch, presentations & bus tour to local gardens

@The Cowes Cultural Centre,
91-97 Thompson Avenue Cowes

Ryan Young,
Sustainable

Gardening Australia

Waterwise garden systems and design

Raingardens Building a functional and attractive rain garden to help keep our waterways healthy

Wicking Beds Garden beds constructed above or in-ground using the wicking water saving technique

Water Wise Garden Design Creating a garden that thrives on low water application

Benita Russell, Westernport Water
Water saving rebates and incentives

Find out the current rebates for a range of water saving appliances and devices you can use in your home and garden.

WESTERNPORT
WATER™

Limited spaces BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL to Lisa Wangman on (03) 5951 3329, 0409 366 914 or l.wangman@basscoast.vic.gov.au

Brought to you by Phillip Island Landcare
Urban Landcare Program supported by:

